CH Babette is giving us "the look" as she knows we cleaned her housing unit out ...or maybe she's just annoyed at being held lol

Show Secretary's Report

Christmas jumpers were sported by many members and the hall looked very festive thanks to the amazing raffle organised by Susan Washbrook and helpers and Mike Palmer's gift table.

75 Syrians and 41 dwarfs were judged by Wendy Palmer and Reece Minerve. Best in Show Syrian was Tristar and Best in Show Dwarf was Lilliput.

The pet classes were well supported by local pet owners and Wendy Barry did a great job getting them all booked in and completing the paperwork. There were 10 hamsters, 2 mice, 4 rats, 2 duprasi, 3 rabbits and 8 guinea pigs for our judges Megan and Caitlin to look at with the overall Best in Show Pet going to Lexi Carter's gorgeous rabbit.

A fabulous Christmas buffet was well organised by Wendy and Scott Palmer and family to keep us all fed and watered.

A lovely end to the year's show calendar, thank you to all those who helped make the show a success.

Sue Carter, Show Secretary
