M&SHC Great Alne Show- Judges Report-Syrian hamsters.

First of all I would like to say a thank you to everyone who entered .It was a glorious sunny day and we had a good number of Syrians entered.

Also a huge thank you to Jean Tye for book stewarding and to Reece Minerve for pen stewarding. I know I waffle on about random things and get easy distracted. Thank you for putting up with me.

Class 1 SH Golden – All 10 entries lacked in degrees of richness, in top colour plus ticking. Some hamster looked quite dull in colour. The male that took 1st place had the nicest type and a nice head.

Class 2 SH Cream – 8 entries, some patchy colour which is not untypical for this time of year with some moulting occurring. It was a male that took 1st place, a black-eyed cream his type was nice and fur plush.

Class 3 SH AOC Male – 15 entries. Variety of colours in this class which is nice to see. The male that took 1st place was a dark eyed white , nice type and fur.

Class 4 SH AOC Female – 10 entries in this class with again like the males a variety of colours; Dove, Sable, copper, Yellow, dark grey and Cinnamon just to name a few. 1st place went to a yellow female she was a bit pale but nice type and plush fur.

Class 5 SH Patterned – 13 entries, lots of roans and dom spots. The 1st place Syrian was a golden Dom spot that was a lovely spotty hamster very eye catching. Plush fur and nice type.

Class 6 SH Satin – 2 entries, 1st was a golden satin male. Both entries were very evenly matched in this class

Class 7 LH Cream – 7 entries. The 1st place was a female black-eyed cream with good type and even colour.

Class 8 LH Self – 6 entries, 1st place to a big sable male with a nice skirt little pale in under colour and moulting at moment overall nice hamster.

Class 9 LH AOC Male – 3 entries, all males lacked skirts in this class. 1st place was a cinnamon who was pale in colour but had nice type.

Class 10 LH AOC Female – 3 entries, 1st place to a golden female that lacked ticking.

Class 11 LH Patterned – 5 entries, The 1st place in this class was a yellow dom spot nice spots but lacked ticking the hamster had nice type too.

Class 12 Satin – 3 entries, the 1st place went to a golden male that lacked ticking and a skirt, top colour showed some richness.

Class 13 - SH & LH Rex – 7 entries. 1st place to a black-eyed cream female. Nice colour and nice coat.

Non- Standard – 4 entries, 1st place had a nice coat and nice type.

M&SHC Great Aine Show:- 11th May 2024- Show Secretary's Report

After all the emotions connected with no key code to get into the hall, we eventually had a great show. Thank you to everyone who leapt into action and set up the hall, quickly & efficiently, so that we were able to get started without further delay.

There was a good entry - 98 Syrians, 59 Dwarfs and 21 Pets.

A big thank you to the judges and their teams:

Syrian - Victoria Holt, Jean Tye & Reece Minerva

Dwarf - Andrew Bryan, Emily Whiteley & Chloe Cato

Pet judges - Pete Logsdail & Wendy Palmer

Congratulations to all the winners especially Fleurdelis winning BIS Syrian and I was chuffed to win BIS Dwarf. A big well done also goes to Tristar who won Res BIS Syrian & Dwarf.

A huge thank you to everyone who helped on the day especially Wendy Palmer for your great pre-ordered lunches & Alex's birthday cakes and Sue & Mark Carter and Mike Palmer on sales.

M&SHC tombola

A massive thank you to Chris Logsdail for running the tombola at Great Aine, it raised £56. My thanks to Ann Warren, Nichola Goss, The Washbrook family and Wendy Palmer for recent donations. I must also thank Jean Tye for the giant tub of lollies.

At the 75th anniversary show we are going to have a raffle similar to the Christmas one. I have had a couple of offers of hampers, if anyone has anything else they would like to donate please let me know ASAP and bring it to the show on June 8th.

Thank you

Susan Washbrook
